

Spectacles and Eye Glasses As Gifts for Christmas.

It becomes second nature to wear glasses that fit as nicely as those we furnish our patrons. They give distinction to the face and strengthen the vision wonderfully.

An excellent Christmas Gift for a near and dear one is a pair of spectacles or eye glasses in a neat, comfortable and elegant gold frame or mounting. You can select the glasses before Christmas and have them accurately fitted to the eyes after Christmas or you can have the one to whom you wish to give the glasses come in and have his or her eyes carefully examined now. No charge for examination. A beautiful calendar for 1906 given with each order.

FOUR SUITS FILED

IN COMMON PLEAS COURT WEDNESDAY

McDonald Found Guilty of Burglary.
Verdict of Not Guilty in Case of
Ohio vs. Baker—Anthony
Case Postponed.

The Savings and Loan company, through their attorney, Julius Whiting, Jr., filed suit in common pleas court Wednesday afternoon against Sarah J. McAllister and James B. McAllister. The plaintiff asks judgment against the chief defendant in the sum of $350 with interest from April 1, 1905, which they claim is due on a promissory note. They also ask the court for power to foreclose a mortgage on property owned by the defendant.

PROMISSORY NOTE CASE.
Charles Krichbaum, in behalf of Isaac Harter and Sons, has commenced suit in common pleas court against W. C. Hinkel in which the plaintiff asks for judgment in the sum of $586.41, being the principal and interest on a promissory note issued by the defendant.

DIVORCE SUIT.
That her husband failed to support her and her children, are the grounds for a suit for divorce and alimony which has been filed in common pleas court by Caroline Buchman against her husband, Charles M. Buchman. The couple were married at New Philadelphia on June 23, 1901 and have no children. A. U. Borden is attorney for the plaintiff.

DIVORCE SUIT.
Attorneys McCaughey and Eggert, in behalf of Ella Blocher, of Massillon, have filed a petition in common pleas against her husband, Peter M. Blocher, for divorce, alimony and the custody of their child. The couple were married at Massillon on December 5, 1895. The grounds for the divorce are cruelty and drunkenness on the part of the defendant.

VERDICT OF GUILTY.
James McDonald, indicted by the grand jury for an attempt to burglarize the saloon kept by Fanny Moore in Alliance, was found guilty by the jury in Judge Ambler's court, after they had been out but a short time. The case was commenced last Monday. It is announced that Attorneys Smith and Blake, for the defendant, will file a motion for a new trial.

FOR SUNDAY SELLING.
William McCullough, a saloonkeeper of Alliance, pleaded guilty to the charge of selling liquor on Sunday, before Judge Ambler Wednesday morning and was given a fine of $25 and costs. Judge Ambler also sentenced J. L. Slater and W. L. Yoder, who were found guilty of the same charge by a jury last week. They were both fined $25 and costs and Slater also received a sentence of 10 days in the workhouse. As this was his first offense, Yoder did not receive any workhouse sentence.

BAKER NOT GUILTY.
Charles Baker, a collector, was found not guilty of assault and battery in the case of Ohio against Baker in probate court Wednesday afternoon. After being out about one half hour the jury brought in the verdict. Baker was charged with the assault by Attorney Allen Cook. Baker was represented by Attorney Jas. A. Rice, while the state's side was handled by Luther Day.

CASE POSTPONED.
Because of the illness of Attorney Souers, of the firm of Rice and Souers, the case of William Anthony, who is charged with manslaughter, will not be heard until next week. Anthony was indicted by the grand jury for striking the blow that caused the death of Charles Burroughs. Anthony claims self-defense.

FIRE INTO ROOM

Where Mother and Her Babe Lay,
Because He Couldn't Enter—Woman May Die.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 6.—Because he was not allowed to enter the room in which his new born baby with its mother lay, the latter suffering from typhoid fever, Ralph Jones fired several shots into the room from a revolver. None of the shots took effect but Jones was set upon by a boarder in the house and beaten so badly that he had to be taken to the Allegheny general hospital in an unconscious condition, suffering from concussion of the brain. Mrs. Jones with her baby were also removed to the hospital, the former in a dying condition as a result of the shock. Mrs. Jones is only 16 years old.

Pleasant Home Gathering.

Bayard, O., Dec. 6.—The usual home gathering at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Chambers and her son at Bayard, occurred on Thanksgiving day. Immediate relatives to the number of twenty were present from Alliance, East Rochester, Atwater, Beloit and Hanoverton. Rev. Wallace Gill, wife, and sister of Alliance. Rev. Hammond of East Rochester, and Rev. Desher of Columbus were also guests.

All enjoyed, not only the repast so bountifully spread to tempt the palate, but even more the social, intellectual and spiritual intercourse, which inspired renewed thankfulness bending the day.

Beer is really a temperance drink. It contains only about 3 1/2 per cent of alcohol. Enough to make it a stimulant, but not enough to make it an intoxicant.

CASTOR GUARDED WHILE IN COURT

Sheriff Has Deputies and "Plain Clothes" Men About, Fearing Attempt at Rescue at Columbus.

Columbus, O., Dec. 6.—Fearing that the desperate band of crooks, with whom Frank Castor the murderer has associated, will attempt to rescue him while his trial is in progress, Sheriff Karb has had the court room well guarded during the progress of the case.

Not only has the sheriff been present almost all the time, but he has also had several men in plain clothes in the court room all the time.

The effort made by Jud King and others to get explosives and tools to Castor that he might blow the jail up and make his escape showed the desperate character of Castor's friends.

The examination of witnesses was continued yesterday.
